

APPLICATION INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS FOR VA FORM 21-0304

IMPORTANT - Please read information and instructions before completing attached application.

Children of Women Vietnam Veterans Born with Certain Birth Defects - 38 U.S.C. 1815

This section of the law authorizes the payment of monetary benefits to, or on behalf of, certain children of female veterans who served in Vietnam. Benefits are payable to qualifying children, or on their behalf, beginning December 1, 2001. There are three eligibility requirements.

To be eligible, the child must:

- be the biological child of a woman veteran who served in the Republic of Vietnam (RVN),
- have been conceived after the date the veteran first served in the RVN during the period 2/28/61 to 5/7/75, and
- have certain birth defects identified by the Secretary of Veterans Affairs as resulting in permanent physical or mental disability.

The law does not include conditions that are:

- a familial disorder,
- a birth-related injury, or
- a fetal or neonatal infirmity with well-established causes.

Note: Completion of VA Form 21-0304, Application for Benefits for a Qualifying Veteran's Child Born with Disabilities, is required. The effective date is December 1, 2001.

Spina Bifida Benefits Eligibility - 38 U.S.C. 1805

Monetary benefits may be paid to, or on behalf of, children of veterans who served in the Republic of Vietnam (RVN), or in or near the demilitarized zone (DMZ) in Korea, as well as children of certain veterans who served in Thailand.

For eligibility based on a parent's service in Vietnam or Korea, the child must:

- be the biological child of a veteran who served in the RVN, or a veteran who served in or near the DMZ in Korea and was exposed to herbicides, and
- have been conceived after the date the veteran first served in the RVN during the period 1/9/62 and 5/7/75, or after the date the veteran first served in or near the DMZ in Korea during the period 9/1/67 to 8/31/71, and
- have any type of spina bifida other than spina bifida occulta. The diagnosis may be established by private physician or government, or private institution examination reports.

For eligibility based on a parent's service in Thailand, the child must:

- be the biological child of a veteran who served at one of the following Royal Thai Air Force Bases (RTAFB): U-Tapao, Ubon, Nakhon Phanom, Udorn, Takhli, Korat, or Don Muang as an Air Force security policeman, security patrol dog handler, member of the security police squadron, or otherwise near the air base perimeter, and
- have been conceived after the date the veteran first served on a RTAFB, and
- have any type of spina bifida other than spina bifida occulta. The diagnosis may be established by private physician or government or private institution examination reports.

General Information

Possible Entitlement: The law does not allow payment of both benefits at the same time. If entitlement exists under both laws, benefits will be paid under 38 U.S.C. 1815.

Health Coverage: The law allows health care covering the defects or any disability associated with the birth defects. This care may be provided directly or by contract.

Vocational Rehabilitation: If achievement of a vocational goal is reasonably feasible, a program of vocational training provided by VA's Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment Service is available to an eligible child.

Monetary Allowance: The law includes levels of monetary allowance, each based on the level of disability of the eligible child.

PENALTY: The law provides severe penalties which include fine or imprisonment, or both, for the willful submission of any statement or evidence of a material fact, knowing it to be false, or for the fraudulent acceptance of any payment to which you are not entitled.

PRIVACY ACT NOTICE: VA will not disclose the information collected on this form to any source other than what has been authorized under the Privacy Act of 1974 or Title 5, Code of Federal Regulations 1.526 for routine uses (i.e., civil or criminal law enforcement, congressional communications, epidemiological or research studies, the collection of money owed to the United States, litigation in which the United States is a party or has an interest, the administration of VA programs and delivery of VA benefits, verification of identity and status, and personnel administration) as identified in the VA system of records, 58VA21/22/28, Compensation, Pension, Education, and Veteran Readiness and Employment Records - VA, published in the Federal Register. Your obligation to respond is required in order to obtain or retain benefits. Giving us your SSN account information is mandatory. Applicants are required to provide their SSN under Title 38 U.S.C. 5101 (c) (1). The VA will not deny an individual benefit for refusing to provide your SSN unless the disclosure of the SSN is required by Federal Statute of law in effect prior to January 1, 1975, and still in effect. Information that you furnish may be utilized in computer matching programs with other Federal or State agencies for the purpose of determining your eligibility to receive VA benefits, as well as to collect any amount owed to the United States by virtue of your participation in any benefit program administered by the Department of Veterans Affairs.

RESPONDENT BURDEN: We need this information to determine your eligibility for benefits for children with certain disabilities who are born of Vietnam veterans or certain Thailand or Korea service veterans (38 U.S.C. chapter 18). Title 38, United States Code, allows us to ask for this information. We estimate that you will need an average of 10 minutes to review the instructions, find the information, and complete this form. VA cannot conduct or sponsor a collection of information unless a valid OMB control number is displayed. You are not required to respond to a collection of information if this number is not displayed. Valid OMB control numbers can be located on the OMB Internet Page at www.reginfo.gov/public/do/PRAMain. If desired, you can call 1-800-827-1000 to get information on where to send comments or suggestions about this form.
